

Social Media Policy

May 1, 2020

Marathon Gold's aim is to facilitate social media communities where our followers can learn about Marathon Gold, exchange thoughtful and informed commentary, and share thoughts on important topics in mining and local communities.

We support a range of views; however, please keep in mind the following:

- Always be respectful in your posts or when commenting, whether you agree or disagree with other's comments.
- Content should be informative and beneficial for the community. Posts should relate to Marathon Gold, the mining industry and the surrounding communities.
- Follow Facebook's, Twitter's, Instagram's, and LinkedIn's rules.
- Do not post content that may be offensive or include inappropriate language. This type of content will be removed.
- Stay away from spam, solicitations or spreading misinformation. These types of comments will be removed.

We are committed to ensuring an open, transparent and inclusive line of communication. We adhere to a code of conduct and values and expect the same from our online communities. With this in mind, we have the right to remove any content violating the guidelines above. Thank you for understanding.
